Our Services

California People Search specializes in the placement of superior Administrative, Marketing, Finance, Human Resources, and Customer Relations candidates. With over 20 years' experience in the Bay Area, we have cultivated long-standing relationships in a variety of industries including:

- Venture Capital,
- Private Equity and Financial Services
- Biotechnology
- Technology/Start-ups

What makes California People Search different from other search firms is that we go beyond simply taking an inventory of candidate skill sets and positions looking to be filled. Instead, we work with our clients and candidates to find the right match of qualifications and personality, to ensure lasting, satisfying employment relationships.

Clients

California People Search specializes in direct hire, contingency searches. This means that our searches are tailored to meet your organization's long-term employment needs and that there is no cost to you for working with us, unless we find the talent your business is looking for.

All of California People Search's candidates are thoroughly screened and have personally met with our recruiting staff for detailed assessments of their experience and skills. We carefully select the candidates that meet your individual needs and present only those most qualified for you to review and meet at a time and location that works for you.

Because we specialize in direct hire searches, we represent candidates with demonstrated longevity and stability. We discuss with them long-term employment goals, preferred work environments, and work styles to better match them to the needs of our clients.

Call California People Search today and let us take the headache out of your next staffing search by bringing high-caliber talent to you!

Candidates

California People Search offers quality candidates access to the Bay Area's finest employers and positions. We partner with you in your search for a rewarding position that offers the growth, opportunity, culture, and compensation you are seeking,- at no cost to you. We know that finding the right position can be daunting. At California People Search, your search is our search! Our team of skilled Placement Counselors work on your behalf to expedite your journey to the exciting and challenging new role you are seeking. We are always looking for great candidates and offer generous bonuses for your placed referral as well.
